

CIDER MUSEUM, HEREFORD

International Cider & Perry Competition 2010

The results of the International Cider & Perry Competition held at the Cider Museum in Hereford on Wednesday 12th May 2010 are as follows. The judges were: Mr. John Thatcher of Thatchers Cider; Mr. James Crowden, Author & Poet and Mr. Nicholas Bulmer, Master Distiller. A total of 110 entries were received from 30 cidemakers from throughout the United Kingdom.

OVERALL CHAMPION - Gwynt-y-Ddraig Cider, Pontypridd, Mid Glamorgan
(Medium Cider)

Class 1 – Dry Cider

First	H. Weston & Sons Ltd., Much Marcle, Herefordshire
Second	Ross-on-Wye Cider & Perry Co. Ltd., Peterstow, Herefordshire
Third	Mr. Stuart Cooper, Checkley, Hereford

Class 2 – Medium Cider

First	Gwynt-y-Ddraig Welsh Cider & Perry Co., Pontypridd, Mid Glamorgan
Second	Gwatkin Cider Co. Ltd., Abbey Dore, Herefordshire
Third	The Amazing Cider Company, Kynaston, Ledbury, Herefordshire

Class 3 – Sweet Cider

First	Gwatkin Cider Co. Ltd., Abbey Dore, Herefordshire
Second	Rosie's Triple D Cider, Llandegla, Wrexham, Denbighshire
Third	Ross-on-Wye Cider & Perry Co Ltd, Peterstow, Herefordshire

Class 4 – Perry

Joint First	Burrow Hill Cider, Martock, Somerset
	Gwatkin Cider Co. Ltd., Abbey Dore, Herefordshire
	H. Weston & Sons Ltd., Much Marcle, Herefordshire

Class 5 – Single Variety Cider

No prizes awarded.

Class 6 – In-Bottle Fermented Cider or Perry

Joint First Oliver's Cider & Perry Ltd, Ocle Pychard, Herefordshire
 Once Upon A Tree, Putley, Ledbury, Herefordshire

Class 7 – Best Presented Packaged Cider or Perry

First Ashridge Cider, Totnes, Devon
Second Oliver's Cider & Perry Ltd, Ocle Pychard, Herefordshire
Third Gwynt-y-Ddraig Cider, Pontypridd, Mid Glamorgan